

DAY 16

I expect the best day of my life spiritually, emotionally, mentally, and physically today in Jesus' name! I love you, Jesus!

Theme:

Understanding that there is so much to look forward to in life!

READ:

Romans 5:5

Psalm 5:3 NLT

Philippians 1:20

REFLECTION:

When we accepted Jesus Christ in our lives, we stepped into the best life we could live! Not because of where we are today, but the hope we have for tomorrow and for our future in Heaven!

Declaring over your life that you will have the best day means that you are not depending on natural circumstances to determine the outcome. Sometimes things go the way we want them to go. Sometimes they don't. But the reality is that we have salvation, we have breath in our lungs, and we know where we are going. And for that, we must live grateful lives.

Teach your family today about an eternal perspective. This life is just a vapor compared to the hope of Heaven! What are some things we can put our hope in that could fail us? What are things we can put our hope in that will never fail us? It's a daily choice to choose what our hope is in. When you put your hope into the Heavenly promise, you will receive a perspective that there is nothing worth more than your salvation---and for that, you will have the best day of your life!!!

CHALLENGE:

Get a long string, maybe a shoestring, and hold it up to everyone. Now take just the tip of the shoestring. If your life on earth was represented in just that very small part and your eternity was the entire shoe string, how much does that bring into perspective of eternity compared to this short life we live on earth? Challenge your family that we have so much to look forward to! Make today the best day no matter the circumstance because our hope and expectancy is in the Lord!!
