

DAY 8

I have a covenant with God and by the blood of Jesus I release my divine protection and divine provision. My angels are carrying out the Word of God on my behalf. (Psalm 103:20) I receive supernatural strength and encouragement from God and my angels. No weapon formed against me shall prosper! (Isaiah 54:17)

Theme:

Learning today that angels are real, and they are commanded to keep God's word and carry out God's word on our behalf.

READ:

Psalm 91:1-16

Psalm 34:7

Psalm 103:20

Isaiah 54:17

Heb 1:13-14

Today, we are focusing on the covenant we have with God and the protection that is promised through His word.

As you read Psalm 91, you will be able to pick out several verses that will instill faith in the hearts of your family. Read it in the New Living Translation--it may be easier to understand. Stop and talk about a few of the verses and what God is saying. They are powerful and will give you confidence in the God you serve!

The scriptures in Psalms and Hebrews refer to angels. Spend some time talking about angels or recalling stories in the bible where angels were present. It's important to believe that we serve a supernatural God who operates in the supernatural! There are things that are hard for us to understand, but it doesn't mean they aren't real!

CHALLENGE:

Learn to acknowledge angels throughout the day. God has assigned angels--ministering spirits--to offer help to those who fear Him and who are a co-heir with Christ.
